6. Jonathan Brook, Leader of SLDC – reporting on Unitarian Changes
CALC will have an input to the role of Parish Councils

Questions raised by residents

- Highway's service inadequate – thought Unitarian changes will improve the service
- Where was funding coming from for a shadow Council as well as a Council – No government help but through cost savings
- It should have been Cumbria who made the unitarian decisions not the government.

7. Public Participation: Questions and Future Priorities

- Retiring of Copper network: help for PC requested by a venerable resident to keep his landline in cases of emergencies. Cllr B Tanham would consult with Openreach and contact the resident on what service they can provide.

Future Priorities

- Covid-19 recovery
- Jubilee Plans
- Safer Roads/pavements initiatives/speed monitoring
- Woodland Management in the Canal Wildlife Area
- Highway Maintenance
- Local Government Reorganisation
- Climate Change/darker skies initiative/ nature recovery
- Bus Shelter Project
- Funding/Installation of new play equipment
- Consideration for Electric vehicles

The Chairperson conveyed thanks to everyone for attending the meeting
